

PLANNED GIVING

BEYOND ARTHRITIS

Information for Executors

Every gift we receive, no matter how big or small, helps us in our work towards Freedom from Arthritis, osteoporosis and related musculoskeletal conditions. We're very thankful to everyone who helps to administer a gift left to Arthritis NSW in a Will.

As an Executor to an estate which has named Arthritis NSW as a charitable beneficiary, you are uniquely placed to ensure that the last wishes of someone close to you are carried out. If you have a solicitor acting on your behalf, please provide this information to them.

Your role is an important one which can sometimes be time-consuming and complex. We're here to answer any questions you may have about distributing a gift to Arthritis NSW. Information we need when the time comes, please send the following documents relating to the gift:

- A copy of the last Will, along with any codicils
- Details of the next of kin or surviving close friends so that we can write to thank them and answer any of their questions.

Residuary Gifts

If Arthritis NSW is named as a beneficiary of the residuary of the estate or a proportion of the entire estate, please also send the additional information:

- Grant of Probate
- Copy of Statement of Assets and Liabilities
- Statement of distributions
- Upon completion of the estate administration, a copy of the Estate Accounts.

When you are in a position to distribute the gift from the estate, please make cheques payable to Arthritis NSW, sent to the attention of our Business Development Manager.
